JUDICIAL CANDIDATES

The Broward Barrister, as a service to its membership, presents in this issue a capsule resume of the judicial candidates for the Circuit and County Courts for the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit. Only those who have opposition are included. You are reminded that voting in the non-partisan judicial election will be the first and second primaries and ALL voters are eligible to vote for the judicial candidates in the primaries.

Candidates are listed alphabetically under the heading of the judicial office which they seek.

Judicial Poll ballots were mailed to all members of The Florida Bar in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit on July 28, 1976. Again you are reminded that if you do not have personal knowledge concerning the individual's qualifications you should not vote on that question.
