PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A voluntary Association such as ours accomplishes its work through committees. The Executive Committee sets policy. It is the activity of the Standing and Special Committees that determines our success.

The meeting of Committee and Section Chairpersons, held on June 18th, was most successful. Each committee and section now has a statement of its functions and purposes and a call to go forward. The first reports of committees and sections are due on September 15, 1981.

Every effort was made this year to give each person who asked to serve on committee, the opportunity to do so. A few special committees remain to be completed.

It's not too late to join up. If you wish to serve and were not appointed, please call me or write to me at the Bar Association Office. We need all the help we can get.

With your help, our Sections, our Committees and our Association will have a successful year.

Russell E. Carlisle

NATIONAL JUDICIAL CONFERENCE

The Broward and West Palm Beach Bar Associations are hosts for the National Judicial Conference to be held at the Boca Raton Club on August 2nd through August 5th, 1981. This august group is made up of the Chief Justices from the Supreme Court of each State in the Union, their Chief Administrators and probably representatives from the United States Supreme Court.

As part of the festivities, a wild game dinner will be held at Bonnette's Hunt Club a little north and west of West Palm Beach. The dinner is being financed by inviting bar members and their spouses or dates to attend the dinner at the price of $100.00 a ticket. The approximate cost per dinner, including an open bar, is $25.00 per person. By charging $100.00 a member and guest will be, in effect, picking up the tab for a Judge and his wife. The donation should be made to the Bar Association and therefore will be deductible. One hundred fifty tickets are being divided between the West Palm Beach and Broward Bar so that a limited number will be available to attend.

Please contact Norma Howard at the Broward Bar Office, or the undersigned, by the 15th of July and, of course, send in your check by that time.

The dinner will start approximately at 7:00 P.M. and festivities will last until 10:00 P.M. To those obtaining tickets, further discussions on how to get there and when will be supplied.

PILOT PROGRAM
STARTS AUGUST 31

James H. Walden, Chairman of the Civil Litigation Coordinating Council, announced that the pilot program in the Civil Division of Broward Circuit Court will start August 31, 1981. The program will provide standardized procedures for motion practice, trials (jury and non-jury), emergencies and the like in four of the Courts Civil Division. The procedures will be established by the four judges and will be adhered to uniformly in all four divisions.

The procedures will be in written form. They should be available by July 15th. They will be published in the August issue of the Barrister and also in the Broward Review.

Most of the procedures derive from the recommendations of the 1980-81 bar committee on Civil Trial Delay. The purpose of the program is to reduce civil trial delay by implementing procedures used in other areas which have been effective to reduce court delay.

The procedures will be initially in the four divisions in the pilot program. If they are successful in reducing delay, it is hoped that they will be adopted by other judges in the Civil Division.

The Civil Litigation Coordinating Council will recommend other procedures for inclusion in the pilot program and for adoption by the Court Judges participating in the pilot program are: Judge Gene Fischer, Judge J. Cail Lee, Judge W. Herbert Moriarty, and Judge George W. Tedder, Jr.

Members of the Civil Litigation Coordinating Council in addition to Chairman Walden are:

Russell E. Carlisle, Rex H. Conrad, Jesse S. Faerber, John S. Neely, Jr., Wilton L. Strickland, Judge Gene Fischer, Judge J. Cail Lee, Judge W. Herbert Moriarty, Judge George W. Tedder, Jr., Judge Louis Weissing, Joanne Burrell Driver, Administrative Aid, Clerk of of Circuit Court's Office, William Freeman, Court Administrator.

JUDICIAL SALARIES RAISED

The 1981 Legislature raised the salaries of Judges in the State of Florida. Effective September 1, 1981.

THE NEW SALARY LEVELS ARE:

Supreme Court $61,500.00
District Court of Appeal .. 55,500.00
Circuit Court 53,000.00
County Court 49,000.00

The Broward County Bar Association and its Judicial Selection and Tenure Committee supported increased compensation for Judges at all levels.

CREATED

Three additional Circuit Judgeships for Broward County will come into existence on July 1, 1981. The Judgeships were created by the 1981 Legislature in its closing days. The positions will be filled through the Judicial Nominating Commission. (See notice this issue).

The Supreme Court had certified to the Legislature, two Circuit and two County Judge positions. However, the Legislature did not create or fund any additional County Judges for Broward County this year.

The Legislature also created a new Judgeship on the Fourth District Court of Appeal. This was consistent with the certification to the Legislature by the Supreme Court.

Florida State Courts Administrator, Donald D. Conn, pointed out that while the positions are created as of July 1st, they are funded as of September 1st. Moreover, the September 1st funding is at the present Judicial salary levels. Therefore, a further adjustment in the actual date the new judges begin their service on the bench is necessary.

Both the Certification and creation of the additional Judgeships were supported by the Broward County Bar Association. Special appreciation is due the Legislative Committee of the Association and the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit Legislative Committee of The Florida Bar for their efforts in helping Broward obtain additional Judges.

YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION NEWS

YOUNG LAWYERS PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Often I am asked why a young lawyer would want to devote his time and energy to serving on various committees and organizations of the Bar. In the past, I have heard others answer this question by reciting some grandiose explanation which includes a salute to the flag, apple pie, motherhood, baseball (with or without strikes), and vague references to the performance of service for others. I think that there is a more practical explanation.

In the first place, bar activities provide a young lawyer with an excellent opportunity to meet those people who are essential to a successful law practice. As Neil Berman pointed out in his recent editorial in The Record (Official paper of the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Section), a case is a lot easier to settle with opposing counsel if you have already established some rapport. In addition, the trial of the case or presentation of a motion before the court is a lot less imposing to a young lawyer if there is a flicker of recognition from the judge. These are fairly obvious advantages to a bar participant.

A more significant benefit for those who are involved in bar work is the opportunity to communicate with other lawyers from around the state. Often, the issues which are involved in the various committees of the organized bar are the same issues which each of us are confronted with in our daily practices. The lawyer involved in the organized bar has the unique opportunity to hear the thoughts and comments of a variety of lawyers who are involved in the process of resolving these issues. The involved young lawyer also has the opportunity to be a part of the decision-making process that answers these issues.

Contrary to popular belief, those lawyers who devote their time and energy to bar work do not always wear three-piece suits. I am happy to report that on occasions in conducting my own research in this area, I have detected that some of these involved lawyers play golf, tennis, softball, volleyball and a variety of other indoor and outdoor sports.

In conclusion, I think that the installation of Sam Smith as President of The Florida Bar provides young lawyers across this state with a special opportunity to become involved in bar activities and organizations. President Smith is a great advocate of local bar participation in the various projects and activities of The Florida Bar. Therefore, if you are interested in finding out more, please drop a note either to me at my office address or President Smith at The Florida Bar office in Tallahassee.

2nd ANNUAL YOUNG LAWYERS/UNITED WAY RUN IS 'OFF AND RUNNING'

Last November the Young Lawyers organized a 10 kilometer run to raise money for United Way. Although that was the first time the event was held, it was a great success as it raised more money from the Young Lawyers section than the campaign drives that had been done in prior years. Further, the run got good responses from the participants and volunteers who worked to put it all together.

This year the Young Lawyers section has unanimously agreed to support and organize the run again. The organizational committee is pleased to announce that the Miami Herald will be sponsoring the event and WFTL Radio Station has agreed to broadcast live coverage of the run as a sporting event.

The 1981 Run has been scheduled for the morning of October 31st and the committee is hoping to use the same course in Sunrise, Florida. Last year the course received a positive response from the runners and the committee had excellent cooperation from Sunrise City Officials in setting up the run.

The Committee is expecting more publicity and a large turnout of participants this year and will be looking for volunteers to assist in organizing and putting on the run. If you are interested in helping (or in participating) please contact either of the Co-Chairpersons: Rich Waggenheim at 763-2122 or Jim Morgan at 752-4112. Also, look for progress reports in future articles in the Broward Barrister.

NOVA LAW LIBRARY TO CIRCULATE LECTURE
CASSETTES

The Continuing Legal Education Committee in conjunction with the Nova Law Library is pleased to announce that audio cassettes at the Nova Law Library will now be available for circulation among members of the Broward County Bar Association.

The following procedure will be in effect: (1) Cassettes will be placed on reserve for security. (2) Cassettes will circulate for a one-week period. (3) Members of the Broward County Bar must present their Broward County Bar Association membership card as identification if they desire to use the cassettes. The bar card will be held and will be attached to the charge-out card until the cassette is returned. (4) Standard overdue fines of 50 cents per day will be charged. (5) Any person who fails to return a cassette will be charged a replacement and handling fee in accordance with standard law library procedures. (6) Repeated offenders of the above policies will have their borrowing privileges revoked.

The Nova Law Library already has a number of audio cassettes on file; however, we encourage any of you who have lecture cassettes which are not in use by your firm to donate these cassettes to enhance this program for all members of the Broward County Bar. You should deliver any cassettes you wish to donate to the Nova Law Library located at 3100 S.W. 9th Ave., in Fort Lauderdale. Your donations are tax deductible and a receipt for tax purposes will be furnished to you by the Nova Law School.

We encourage your participation and your donations. Please take advantage of this new service as well as the other highly beneficial services offered to the Broward County Bar Association by the Nova Law School and the Nova Law Library.
