Resolution of the Executive Committee of the Broward County Bar Association

As the designated representative of the Broward County Bar Association, President-Elect Terrence Russell appeared and made a presentation before the Article V Review Commission at public hearings conducted in West Palm Beach on September 15, 1983. Mr. Russell presented the Executive Committee Resolution appearing in this issue of the Barrister and answered questions from the Commission during a 45-minute dialogue which also included comments about the need for reform in the procedures of the Judicial Nominating Commissions.

The West Palm Beach hearings were well attended and informal conversations between some of the Commission members and Mr. Russell indicated that all of the Commission's hearings have generated a great deal of public interest. The Article V Review Commission was appointed recently by Chief Justice Alderman to recommend possible changes in Article V of the Florida Constitution.

The Commission, headed by Justice Ben F. Overton and including many distinguished lawyers and judges, among them District Court of Appeals Judge Gavin K. Letts, Senator Jim Scott, Attorney General Jim Smith, and Florida Bar President-Elect Gerald Richman, appeared genuinely interested in the position of the Broward County Bar Association, as reflected in the Resolution.

It is anticipated that the Article V Review Commission, which concludes its public hearings on September 16, 1983, in Miami, will make specific recommendations to the Chief Justice early in 1984.

Questions regarding the Commission and its report should be addressed to the office of Justice Ben F. Overton, Article V Review Commission, Supreme Court Building, Tallahassee, Florida 32301.

Resolution of the Executive Committee of the Broward County Bar Association

Re: Revision of Article V of the Florida Constitution

Whereas, the Broward County Bar Association has continually been concerned about the efficient operation of the Court systems of this State; and

Whereas, the Courts Committee of the Broward County Bar Association has submitted certain recommendations to the Executive Committee regarding proposed changes to Article V of the Constitution currently under study by the Article V Review Commission; and

Probate Division

Notice to Attorneys

Please be advised that all probate, guardianship and mental health division cases will be entered into the new probate computer system in the 17th Judicial Circuit, Broward County, in the near future. Therefore, from this day forward, all attorneys shall include their Six-Digit Florida Bar Number on all pleadings and correspondence pertaining to probate, guardianship and mental health division cases, whether such cases are already in existence or are in process of being established. Place your Florida Bar Number below the name, address and telephone number on your pleadings and correspondence.

Important: With the implementation of automation taking place, be sure that all your required documents are timely filed to avoid receiving a citation from the court.

Done and Ordered in Chambers at Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida, this 7th day of September, 1983.

Resolution

Whereas, the Executive Committee of the Broward County Bar Association has adopted certain recommendations of the Committee and has thereby taken an official position with regard to same; and

Whereas, the President-Elect of the Broward County Bar Association has been designated by the Executive Committee to present the view of the Broward County Bar Association to the Article V Review Commission during the course of pending public hearings:

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

1. That the Broward County Bar Association favors a study on the feasibility of expansion of the jurisdiction of the Florida Supreme Court.
2. That the Broward County Bar Association favors a study on the expansion of the jurisdiction and number of the intermediate Appellate Courts of this State.
3. That the Broward County Bar Association is strongly opposed to the consolidation of County and Circuit Courts.

4. That the Broward County Bar Association is opposed to the re-establishment of Municipal Courts.
5. That the Broward County Bar Association is strongly opposed to requiring public meetings of the State's Judicial Nominating Commissions.
6. That the Broward County Bar Association is opposed to public proceedings of the Judicial Qualifications Commission.
7. That the Broward County Bar Association is opposed to a mandatory retirement age for judges.
8. That the Broward County Bar Association is in favor of the establishment of specialized Trial and Appellate Courts and opposed to the "rotation system" for Circuit Court Judges among the presently existing divisions in the Circuit Court.

Duly adopted by the Executive Committee on the 12th day of September, 1983.

Anatomy of a Civil Trial Seminar

How does the Broward County Judiciary expect the various aspects of a civil trial to be conducted in their Court? Discover the answer to this important question at the Anatomy of a Civil Trial Seminar sponsored by the Young Lawyers Section of the Broward County Bar Association. The Seminar will be held on Wednesday, November 16, 1983, from 8:45 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. in Room 250, of the Broward County Courthouse, 201 S.E. Sixth Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Each Judge will be supplied the same set of facts taken from a simulated trial and will gear his comments and presentation accordingly. Following the topical presentations, a Panel of Judges will be convened to answer general questions on any aspect of a civil trial.

Speakers and Topics of Discussion will include:

Opening Remarks

Voir Dire
Opening Argument
Direct Examination
Cross Examination
Closing Argument

Judge M. Daniel Futch, Jr.
Judge W. Herbert Moriarty
Judge Larry Seidlin

The Bench Bar Workshop of Broward County Bar Association has been scheduled for November 18, 1983, and will be in the format of a half day program. All local attorneys, trial and appellate judges are invited to participate. (However, space is limited to 100 attorneys—and reservations will be accepted on a "first come" basis.)

Workshop sessions have been planned for certain areas of practice as shown on this notice. Each workshop group will have a discussion leader, and written reports will be presented at the conclusion of the discussion. These reports will be given to the Courts Committee. The Committee will evaluate the recommendations and the final results will be published in The Broward Barrister.

Nova Law Center has been most helpful in providing facilities for the workshop and the Bar appreciates this help.
