Patrick Bailey Sworn In As President of Broward County Bar Association

Patrick L. Bailey was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and attended Marquette University for his undergraduate and legal education. He practiced law in Milwaukee until 1959 when he moved to Pompano Beach and was admitted to The Florida Bar.

He entered the practice of law under the guidance of Bart E. Sullivan. He has been very active in Bar work, serving as President of North Broward Bar in 1966-1967. He was elected to the Executive Committee of Broward County Bar Association in 1968. He has served as Secretary-Treasurer and President-Elect. He also served as Chairman of the Finance Committee, House Committee and the Judicial Nominating Commission for the 17th Judicial Circuit. Mr. Bailey served as President of the Greater Pompano Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Exchange Club of Pompano Beach.

Mr. Bailey met his wife, Pat, while he was in law school and they were married

35th Annual Florida Bar Convention

A five-star convention at a five-star hotel! That's this year's 1985 Annual Meeting of The Florida Bar, June 26-29 at the Boca Raton Hotel and Club.

Retired Army General William C. Westmoreland and former Congresswoman Bella Abzug highlight numerous luncheon programs while entertainers Rich Little and Robert Klein top a fun-filled slate of social activities spread throughout four days of continuing legal education seminars, committee meetings, breakfast gatherings, sporting events and family programs.

Other star-studded attractions include appearances by Larry Csonka at the traditional Family Breakfast and the sounds of Dr. Bop and the Headliners at the Young Lawyers Section Scholarship Dance. Informative presentations are billed at various section and committee luncheons, including such speakers as: Francis E. Dowd, Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board; Florida Supreme Court Justice Raymond Ehrlich; Florida State University Law School Dean Talbot (Sandy) D'Alemberte; 1981-82 Bar President Samuel S. Smith; former Circuit Judge David U. Strawn, who chaired the Legislative Study Commission on Alternate Dispute Resolution for the Courts; former Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Arthur J. England, Jr.; and others.

Sporting events and family activities will include: the 5000-meter Legal Run-around; golf and tennis tournaments; a champagne cruise on the Intracoastal by paddlewheel boat; the 2nd Annual Florida Bar Art Show; a professional success/marital stress seminar; youth-oriented entertainers and dramatic presentations; children's game tournaments and more.

Full-color convention fliers have been inserted in past issues of The Florida Bar News. Pre-registration cutoff is June 17. Hotel reservations can be made through May 27; rooms are on a space available basis afterwards. For other details call The Florida Bar's Meetings and Convention office at (904) 222-5286 or (800) 342-8060 toll free.

Administrative Order No. 2.13.1

IN RE: CIVIL DIVISION PROCEDURES DEFAULTS IN CIVIL ACTIONS

In accordance with the authority vested in the Chief Judge by Rule 2.050, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, it is in his senior year. They have six children. Timothy practices law with him, Dennis will take the July Florida Bar exam, Kevin is completing his first year of law school at the University of Florida, Michael works in San Francisco, Mary Pat teaches in the elementary school system of Orange County, Florida, and Meg is in her senior year at St. Mary's at Notre Dame.

Mrs. Bailey has been most supportive of Pat in all of his legal and civic duties. Besides being the managing partner of a busy household, she has found time for volunteer work at Henderson Clinic and St. John's Rehabilitation Center.

Public Forums

The Public Relations Committee and the Fort Lauderdale News co-sponsored three public forums this past year. The forums were on:

- (1) Estate Planning and Probate
- (2) Family Law
- (3) Small Claims Court

The auditorium at the public library was used and it was filled for all three events (see photos on this page).

The response to these programs by the public was very positive and many requests have been made that the programs be continued. Without the help of the Fort Lauderdale News, it would not have been possible to have presented this public service.

John DiChiara, Chairman of the Public Relations Committee, is to be commended for a job well done.
